

ITALIAN COLONISTS IN NORTHERN AFRICA REPORTED BE FLEEING

ITALIAN TROOPS ALSO REPORTED FALLING BACK UPON BENGASI STRONGHOLD

By The Associated Press

Panic-stricken Italian colonists were reported fleeing before the British in Premier Mussolini's dwindling North African empire today as aerial scouts told of seeing Fascist motorized columns withdrawing from Bengasi and Blackshirt troops falling back post-haste on the Eritrean strongholds.

Fresh Greek successes in Albania, announced in Athens, plunged Italy's war effort into further gloom.

Dispatches from the Libyan desert battlefield said that Gen. Sir Archibald P. Wavell's troops were pressing westward along the Mediterranean coast at a pace which would bring them to the gates of Bengasi within 48 hours.

Bengasi, 325 miles from the Egyptian border, had been heralded as the site for a probable major defense by Marshal Rodolfo Graziani's retreating army. It was not immediately clear whether the withdrawal of motorized columns signalled abandonment of the town.

Latest reports put the British within 60 miles of Bengasi, sweeping forward at a 30-mile-a-day clip.

In the Greek-Italian war, an Athens spokesman declared that the Greeks had smashed two fascist counter-attacks in the Adriatic coastal sector and that the Italians were falling back "in confusion, abandoning dead and wounded on the field of battle."

The Greeks said that Italian tank attacks had been frustrated and that the fascists had been driven from "positions of great strategic importance."

Evening-wielding Greek troops, it was said, drove the Italians from an unidentified village, capturing 148 prisoners, a storehouse loaded with munitions, and quantities of machine-guns, mortars, rifles and anti-aircraft guns. Potential rains swept the fighting front.

France's political crisis moved nearer a showdown in the thirty-year-old struggle between the 84-year-old chief of state, Marshal Pétain, and the conqueror, Adolf Hitler.

Outwardly, the nazis profess to be keeping hands off. Behind the scenes, however, sharp German pressure was reported to force Pétain to reinstate his ousted former vice premier, Pierre Laval, an ardent proponent of co-operation with Germany.

Today, Pétain's No. 1 aide, Laval Minister Admiral Jean Darlan returned to Paris for new conversations with Laval amid indications that the French government was sternly opposed to restoring Laval to the cabinet on his own terms.

Dispatches from Vichy said Laval's first demands were rejected as exorbitant at a meeting yesterday of Pétain and his ministers.

The British reported steady advances by their armies on Africa's far-flung fronts—in Eritrea, in Ethiopia, and in Italian Somaliland. South African troops were said to have driven 60 miles inside Somaliland from British Kenya.

Italian settlers in Eastern Libya, British said, have joined the military withdrawal toward Bengasi.

German bombers struck at London and Somerville England late in the short but intensive raid. The British officially classified the attacks as light.

Dispatches to neutral Sweden from German-held Oslo asserted that 15 years old had been ordered to register by the Nazi-dominated government in an effort to strengthen their control.

Italian Garrison Dispersed.

WITH THE BRITISH FORCES NEAR CHEREN, Eritrea, Feb. 5.—(Delayed) (P)—The Italian garrison of Barentu, estimated at three and a half brigades, which on Sunday attempted to slip away from encircling British forces after the British capture of that town, appeared lost and dispersed today in the wild scrublands of Eritrea.

This fascist force which retreated southward in an effort to reach Adi Ugru and Asmara, Eritrean capital, by way of Tokul and Fozzi Di, was reported to have been scattered widely and so broken up that Italian officers would find it impossible to reorganize them into military units for months.

Large numbers of white troops were reported surrendering freely in the area.

WOMAN EJECTED FROM CAPITOL

Pulled along by a police woman and a detective, a woman (center) who broke into the debate on the Lease-Lend bill in the House gallery, is taken to the women's bureau after being questioned in the office of the sergeant of arms. To questioners she gave her name as "Andrea," her home as "New York" and said she was a "pamphleteer."

WINANT NOMINATED TO BE AMBASSADOR TO GREAT BRITAIN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(P)—President Roosevelt today named John C. Winant, former republican governor New Hampshire, to be ambassador to London and ordered extensive changes among American diplomats already in service in Europe and the Orient.

Subject to senate approval Winant, 51-year-old authority on international social and labor problems will replace Joseph P. Kennedy at the Court of St. James. Kennedy returned to this country several months ago and announced his resignation, to become effective when Mr. Roosevelt named a successor.

The nomination of Winant to this top diplomatic post in which he will serve as the nation's first-rank war observer, was submitted to the senate by the President as one of 10 changes among United States representatives abroad.

These included raising the status of the present legation in Uruguay to that of embassy, thus giving the United States another full-fledged ambassador in South America in line with the "good neighbor" policy.

Back-Handed Reward.

Also involved was the transfer of Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson from China to Australia with the rank of minister. Although this meant a step down in rank, it was said actually to have been determined upon as a reward to Johnson for his long, gruelling service in war-ravaged China. It also was considered a gesture of friendship toward Australia, to name an Ambassador to serve there as minister.

In addition to the Winant nomination, Mr. Roosevelt asked the senate to confirm these other diplomatic appointments:

Anthony J. Drexle Biddle of Pennsylvania, now ambassador to Poland, to serve also without additional compensation as ambassador to the exiled government in London of Belgium and as minister to the governments of Norway and The Netherlands.

William Dawson of Minnesota, now ambassador to Panama, to become the first Ambassador to Uruguay, heretofore a ministerial post.

Edwin C. Wilson of Florida, now minister to Uruguay, to become ambassador to Panama.

Clarence E. Glass of Connecticut, now minister to Australia, to become ambassador to China.

Oklahoma Named.

Nelson T. Johnson of Oklahoma, now ambassador to China, to become minister to Australia.

Bert Fish of Florida, now minister to Egypt, to become minister to Portugal.

Herbert C. Pell of Rhode Island now minister to Portugal, to become minister to Hungary, succeeding John Montgomery, resigned.

Alexander Kirk of Illinois, now embassy counsellor at Rome, to become minister to Egypt.

Philip H. Moffat of New Hampshire, now minister to Canada, to serve additionally without

DISTRIBUTION OLD AGE PENSIONS WAS DOMINANT SUBJECT

BOTH HOUSE AND SENATE TAKE UP HIGHLY CONTROVERSIAL MATTER

AUSTIN, Feb. 6.—(P)—Distribution of old age pensions, a volcanic subject, drew attention today at both ends of the capitol.

Over the objection of a few members who shouted that the money ought to be added to pension grants, the house voted $500 to its committee which will investigate complaints of unsuccessful applicants for old age assistance.

The senate transferred its pension inquiry from a committee of the whole senate to a special group which was asked to finish the job by Saturday. The committee of the whole already had spent most of two days studying pension administration methods.

Lonnie E. Alsop, blind representative from Carthage, introduced a semi-serious resolution attacking the West, East and South Texas Chambers of Commerce. The house wouldn't let him send it to the state affairs committee, and he avoided a direct vote by raising the point of order. The resolution period had expired.

The resolution evoked considerable laughter and shouting. Alsop told his colleagues that "to a certain extent, I am serious."

The proposal called upon the three regional chambers to consolidate in order to save taxpayers citizens large sums which they now are paying for triple duplicated service, and further to promote more efficiency in behalf of industry, of this state, and not politics.

"We are not yet willing to surrender our constitutional rights of lawmaking," he said, "to a small well-organized, well-paid group."

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is leading a campaign for a bill to bring about extensive changes in budgetary and financial procedures in the state government.

The house sent Governor W. Lee Daniel a bill authorizing state lease of a large coastal tract wanted by the federal government for a bombing range, and a measure by Rep. Ben Sharpe of Paris legislating noise guards to serve while the national guard is on active duty. Both had been submitted by the governor as emergency matters.

Would Hold Public Hearing.

Under the housing range bill, persons opposed to the lease would be permitted to have their say at a public hearing. Legislators agreed, however, that the protests probably would have no effect.

Governor O'Daniel signed into law a bill authorizing the Houston Port Commission to lease land or facilities to the federal government for use as a shipyard.

The senate passed finally a bill authorizing a supplemental

IMPROVED WEATHER BROUGHT RENEWED AIR ACTIVITY BETWEEN BRITISH - GERMAN OPPONENTS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press Staff Writer

Resumption of big scale air-thrusts by both Germany and Britain, with temporary improvement of the weather, is a sorry harbinger of a bloody struggle between the two nations.

The battle of Britain, which had slowed down greatly because of bad flying conditions, picked up speed again with the first burst of sunshine and headed for the high crisis which the nazis are trying to force in their effort to knock England out.

This might come at any time, but logic expects that it would place it under the brighter skies of April or later. Western Europe's winter will show some nasty bursts of temper yet.

When the day of trial comes it will in great measure be a test of strength between the rival air fleets. There will be various phases of this great conflict, vastly imbalanced among them being the German submarine campaign which is designed to strangle Britain by cutting off essential supplies. All these, however, and especially any attempt at invasion, will hinge on the operations—offensive and defensive—of the rival air fleets.

UNITED STATES AND MEXICO EXPECT SIGN GOOD NEIGHBOR PACT

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE FOR DISPOSITION ALL PROBLEMS OF TWO NATIONS

By LLOYD LEHRBAS WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(P)—The United States and Mexico, it was learned authoritatively today, expect to sign a comprehensive "good neighbor" agreement in the very near future, settling all major economic and financial questions now outstanding.

The pact, it was understood, will provide for a general, all-inclusive disposition of "every problem between the two nations."

A number of the points involved have been pending for several years and involve millions of dollars.

The formulae for the agreement were worked out by Undersecretary of State Welles and Dr. Francisco Castillo Najera, the Mexican ambassador. They were said to have concentrated on a lump settlement, rather than a piecemeal disposal of numerous claims and counter claims arising from the oil expropriation, agrarian appropriation, and other controversial questions.

Final arrangements for the pact probably will follow the return of the Mexican ambassador here Friday, after conferences with his foreign office in Mexico City.

One of the major questions scheduled to be settled arose in 1938 from the Mexican government's expropriation of American, British and Dutch owned oil properties, valued by the oil companies at from $400,000,000 to $440,000,000 but appraised at only $35,400,000 by Mexican courts.

Other extensive American claims resulted from the Mexican government's large scale expropriation of American owned land and property under its agrarian program, and a number of general claims resulting from alleged seizures of property dating back 70 years.

New Ambassador From Japan Sees No War Reasons

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—(P)—Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, new Japanese ambassador to the United States, expressed confidence today that there are no questions between Japan and the United States which can not be settled in an amicable manner.

The new ambassador, in a prepared statement issued upon his arrival here aboard the liner Kamakura Maru, said:

"I am now only on my way to take up my duties. I am not ready to discuss any problems affecting either the United States or Japan. I can, however, say this—that I am confident that there is no question whatsoever outstanding between the two countries which cannot be settled in an amicable and satisfactory manner through a timely display of statesmanship by the responsible people on both sides. And with the confidence, I am proceeding to Washington."

A reporter asked the admiral if he was here to effect a pact or treaty with the United States.

"I can say," he replied, "that I am here to see that there is no probability of war between Japan and the United States."

"The people of Japan want good relations with you," he said, "I go to Washington with great hope."

IMPLIED STRIKE THREAT AGAINST BIG FORD PLANT

DEMANDS MADE BY CIO WILL NOT EVEN BE ANSWERED COMPANY OFFICIALS SAY

(By The Associated Press)

The huge Ford Motor Company, which holds millions of dollars in national defense orders, faced an implied strike threat today from the United Automobile Workers (UAW).

"Any necessity of a strike" at the Ford plants can be avoided by "sincere negotiations" on five union demands made yesterday, declared a statement by R. J. Thomas, UAW-CIO president, and Michael F. Widman, Jr., director of the union's drive to organize the Ford workers.

Ford spokesmen said they would not "take the trouble" to reply to the union, which asked wage increases, acceptance of the principle of seniority, and an immediate bargaining conference for employees of the company at Highland Park and River Rouge, Mich.

There are 85,000 Ford production workers in the Detroit area.

On other labor fronts affecting the defense program this was the situation:

Seven thousand employees of the Allis-Chalmers Company in Milwaukee, Wis., and 6,500 of the International Harvester Company tractor plant at Chicago remained out on strike, with no apparent progress made toward settlement of the disputes. Allis-Chalmers has some $40,000,000 in defense contracts.

At a Lacrosse, Wis., rubber plant 800 CIO-unions walked out yesterday contending the company had violated seniority rules.

A second strike in two weeks stopped production of freight cars by the Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing Company at Michigan City, Ind. An AFL union spokesman said the company refused to consider a grievance committee's demands.

BRITISH FORCES IN AFRICA ARE CLOSING IN ON ERITREA TOWN

ADVANCE OF ARMY OF THE NILE IN NORTHERN AFRICA CONTINUES SATISFACTORY

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 6.—(P)—British forces in Africa are closing in on Cheren, important railroad town in Italy's Eritrea, British headquarters announced today.

In northern Africa the advance of the army of the Nile on Bengasi, Libya, "progresses satisfactorily," a communique said.

On both fronts, separated by some 2,000 miles of desert and rough hills country, the Royal Air Force carried on violent bombings to prepare the way for the advancing land forces, an RAF communique said.

Dive bombers made smashing attacks on the Italian gun positions in the hills around Cheren and on the road east of the town. At Barentu two Italian planes were captured and one shot down.

Cheren lies about 40 miles northwest of Agordat, which the British captured last Saturday, and is about half way on the railroad line between Agordat and Massawa, Eritrea's principal Red Sea port.

The Italian positions about Cheren are believed to be strongly fortified, and the country is wild and rugged, making motorized advances difficult.

Further south in Eritrea, the British said, the fascist forces which had withdrawn eastward from Barentu were vigorously pressed in the Tole area.

The British price in North Africa was expected to bring them to the gates of Bengasi in about 48 hours.

Pilots of Royal Air Force bombers, blasting a path for the British advance, told of seeing Italian trucks rolling southward out of Bengasi along the coastal road which offers the only overland line of retreat from the town.

Panic-stricken Italian settlers, who migrated to this fertile region in large numbers in recent years, were said in British reports to be tangled with columns of blackshirt troops falling back upon Barentu.

Since the beginning of the East African campaign, the communique said, "about 1,500 prisoners, mostly Italians, have been taken with further captures of military material of all descriptions."

NOTED FLIER, FIRST LINE APPEASER FOR AMERICA, HEARD

THINKS BRITISH CAN'T WIN AND THAT AMERICAN DEFENSE SHOT TO PIECES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—(P)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh testified today that the American air force now was weaker in relation to Germany's than it was a year ago because "we are sending our modern production abroad."

Opposing the administration's British aid bill, the trans-Atlantic flier told the senate foreign relations committee that American plane production had been expanded substantially in the last year.

"But in our relative strength to Germany," he continued, "we are weaker in relation to them than we were a year ago."

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) asked if Lindbergh did not believe that expanded aircraft production was a valuable asset.

"That depends upon when you consider invasion possible," the witness responded. "I think we should consider the possibility of invasion at any time."

If the nation ever is invaded, he had said earlier, "the responsibility will lie upon those who send our arms abroad."

He testified that as things now stood, the United States program of aid to Britain and other countries "is encouraging war, prolonging it and increasing bloodshed without materially affecting the course of the war."

Senate Committee Witness

Testifying in opposition to the administration's British aid bill before the senate foreign relations committee, Lindbergh said in a prepared statement that if this country "ever invaded" with responsibility will lie with those who send our arms abroad.

A little later, the administration won the first test of floor strength on its aid to Britain legislation in a 206 to 145 house vote against a republican proposal to substitute for it a $2,000,000,000 loan or gift program.

Under questioning by Senator Connally (D-Tex.), the 39-year-old Atlantic flier declared that the nation already was committed to give Britain five-year arms aid. We should keep our promises," he declared, then added:

"I think it is very important that England not be beaten in war, but I don't think that is in American control."

Lindbergh then said he believed reports that the country's arms embargo two years ago had encouraged war in Europe.

Help Just Increases Bloodshed

Replying affirmatively, Lindbergh added that American help to belligerents abroad encouraged prolonged and increased bloodshed.

While the senate committee was hearing Lindbergh, democratic members of the house foreign affairs committee agreed on an amendment to the British aid bill to put at five-year limit on the president's power to make contracts under the legislation.

The extension of the contractual power three years beyond the proposed expiration date of the law, it was said, would permit the completion of large projects, warships for example.

Also, in a bid for increased support for the bill, the house committee decided to sponsor another amendment reading: "Nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize or permit authorizations of aid to put at five-year limit on the president's power to make contracts under the legislation."

At one point, Lindbergh testified in reply to questions by Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) that he did not believe the United States should aid Greece in its fight against Italy.

Connally said he could not see why U. S. planes would be needed here if it was true, as Lindbergh believed, that there was no danger of an invasion of the United States.

Lindbergh declared in his "stop-encouraging-war" testimony that he believed that if we embargoed aid more damage" to France than if the act had been left on the statute books. "In the end," he said, "it might be shown to have done more damage to Britain."

"You don't believe Germany would have invaded France?" Connally asked.

"After all," the witness replied, "Britain and France declared war on Germany. I believe that if war had not been declared Germany would not have turned west. I believe that if we had kept the arms embargo peace would be under negotiation in Europe now."

Lindbergh asserted that "from the standpoint of Britain and France, I believe a better peace could be negotiated now than next month or next year."

Under further questioning, the witness said he did not know

JESTER HEADS YMCA FOR FOURTH TERM; IS UNANIMOUS CHOICE

ANNUAL MEETING OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF INSTITUTION MONDAY

Beauford H. Jester, three times president of the Corsicana YMCA, was elected by acclamation to serve a fourth time at the annual meeting of the officers and directors of the YMCA Monday.

The annual president's and general secretary's reports were given and committees were appointed to launch the 1941 program.

Other officers elected included Sydney Marks, vice president; N. Suttle Roberts, treasurer; and F. C. Paul, recording secretary.

Meeting with the board of directors were the junior and senior advisory boards recently organized to assist in the administration of the expanding YMCA program.

The financial report for 1940 revealed that the association is conducting its program within its budget of income and expenses.

The president appointed a committee composed of Tom Eady, O. L. Albritton and Dean Allen for the purpose of inspecting the YMCA dormitory rooms and suggesting improvements wherever needed.

Another committee composed of W. E. McKinney, Dr. E. F. Waters and J. N. Garitty was appointed to advertise the YMCA health club and the value of its facilities.

J. N. Edens and Ed M. Polk were presented in brief addresses, discussing the benefits derived from the YMCA by the youths of the community. Edens outlined the modernization program and urged that the project be pressed forward.

Campaign Be Planned. Other business activities included the appointment of a committee consisting of J. H. Sullivan, N. Suttle Roberts and J. N. Garitty, to confer with officials of the chamber of commerce with reference to dates for the annual YMCA gifts and membership campaign.

The executive committee was instructed to consider a date for the annual YMCA membership meeting.

Dean Allen was authorized to supervise the landscaping and beautification of the front of the YMCA. Robert Cooksey volunteered shrubbery and several pecan trees for the project.

Plans were made for the annual YMCA area council meeting to be held in Dallas, Feb. 14-15, and President Jester was instructed to arrange for a local delegation to attend.

Renovated Work Outlined. The president outlined the renovation work done in connection with the installation of a new boiler and heating facilities and a completely equipped health room. He also reported on the renovation of the exterior of the building which was recently completed and asserted that the cost of these improvements amounted to $4,058.80. Part of this, he said,

PLAN INDEX RECORDS OF NATURALIZATION IN NAVARRO COUNTY

A WPA project to index all naturalization records as part of the national census has been approved and will be started in the Navarro county courthouse in the WPA district in the early part of February. This project is sponsored by the advisory committee to the council of national defense and is co-sponsored by the immigration and naturalization service of the department of justice.

For many years citizenship was granted in Texas by both county and district courts and records have been maintained in various volumes, many original papers being filed in among case papers of the several courts. Since these records now are the custody of county and district clerks of county courthouses.

This WPA project has been set up on a statewide basis and after all work is completed in all counties, an index for the state, arranged alphabetically by county, will be prepared and made available to the immigration and naturalization service.

Carbon copies of index sheets will be placed in the offices of the county clerk for the records of each county for future references and use by investigators and the general public, available after all indexes have been completed.

This WPA project is expected to be completed within six months and will facilitate both aliens seeking citizenship and naturalized citizens seeking information regarding citizenship status. It will enable all persons about whose citizenship there might be a question to prove their eligibility for United States citizenship.

has been paid from modernization and building funds on hand when the contract was let and from new contributions received while the work was in progress. The balance will be paid for from new contributions and ratified pledges to the building fund, he said.

Secretary's Report. In the annual report issued by General Secretary Pat H. Ramsey, it was pointed out that the facilities of the association have been taxed increasingly during the past year in which all types of recreational programs have been carried on.

In a statistical account of the work the following report was made:

Different group meetings, 52; total meetings, 381; total individual attendance, 935; total gross attendance, 5,612; participations, 16,818; spectators, 750; NYA and volunteer leaders, 35.

The general secretary also told of the work being done among the various individual organizations within the association. They include the junior and senior Hi-Y Clubs, Friendship Club, Camera Club, and the monthly meeting of the Ministerial Association in addition to several other activities.

FAIR ASSOCIATION PLANS CAMPAIGN TO DOUBLE INVESTMENT

PAST POLICIES AND FUTURE PROGRAM APPROVED MEETING STOCKHOLDERS

Past policies and a future program which is scheduled to include a campaign to double the present investment in the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show were approved at the annual stockholders' meeting of the organization held at the Navarro Hotel Monday afternoon.

Five directors whose terms expired this year were re-named for a three-year period. Officers of the show will be named at a meeting of the board within a few days.

President J. N. Edens presided at the session and the financial report was presented by F. H. Harvey, Jr., secretary and treasurer. The statement showed total assets of $52,000 with the land valued at $2895 and the buildings at $49,713. Total paid investment in capital stock was reported at $17,300.

A net loss for the third season of the fair of $4,124 was reported with total revenues listed at $14,453.10 and total expenditures of $18,577.56, which included permanent investments of some $1800.

It was pointed out the operations for the first two years showed a slight profit which was erased by the last season because of the enlarged scale of the exhibition and curtailment of attendance because of unfavorable weather.

In the discussion that followed the report, it was pointed out the major support for the show had come from the area outside of Corsicana.

Stockholders and directors agreed the Corsicana show had gained extensive recognition all over Texas and the nation because of the quality of exhibits presented, especially in the livestock divisions, and that it would be detrimental to attempt to lessen the standards.

President Edens told the stockholders that despite the fact the fair plant was valued at $52,000 it was little more than half complete and that three additional buildings were badly needed including one for poultry, one for dairy cattle, and one for sheep and hogs; he asserted the savings each year on rentals of tents would pay for the additions within a short period.

He insisted it was his belief and that of most of the board that a campaign should be launched at the proper time to complete the plant and afford sufficient funds for operation, denying that officials ever expected the enterprise to develop into a profit-making venture but that it is principal value would be in the service rendered to the district which it served as an educational and entertainment feature.

The financial report was ordered received and filed by the stockholders and a motion unanimously adopted approving the past policies of the board in the expansion of the plant and operation of the show.

The plan to launch a campaign to double the investment at an appropriate time.

The following five men were announced as those whose terms expired this year, and were unanimously re-elected: J. M. Dyer, W. E. McKinney, Fred M. Allison, B. L. Sanders and Lowry Martin.

PATRIOTISM PARALYZED BY GRIP OF GOLD ON LIFE*

Other Virtues, Too, Are Atrophied By Love of Money—The Famous Story of Dives and Lazarus—What Jesus Said About Mammon-Worship.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

On the road to the traditional site of the Garden of Eden, down Mosul way, along the Tigris River, where the oil wells are, dwell a curious people called Yezidis. These are devil-worshippers, and significantly, their sacred emblem is a peacock. Only at the risk of a fight may one speak disrespectfully of Satan in the presence of a Yezidi. Rather closely paralleling the Yezidis are the Mammon-worshippers. Of course, there are outward differences. The Yezidis wear flowing oriental robes and turbans, and are as poor as most Asiatics. The Mammon-worshippers, on the contrary, dwell in luxurious houses, ride in automobiles, wear expensive clothes, eat sumptuously every day and enjoy countless privileges.

Nevertheless, the Bible deals sternly with those who worship Mammon, which is but another name for gold. And Jesus made it clear that those who trust in their riches, "the Mammon of unrighteousness," are in for a poor time at the end of Genesis.

He had bitter, scornful and warning words for that class of men who are in the grip of gold.

Love of money does something dreadful to men's spirits. In the present hour, with the world in a life-and-death struggle that should inspire everyone to heroic sacrifice, we find the shadow of personal gain falling blackly across our desperate military preparations.

Also sent to the house was a senate bill exempting state banks from payment of the note stamp tax, an exemption already granted federal banks.

House Refuses to Adjourn.
The house refused to adjourn until Monday, deciding to meet again tomorrow. It will be the first Friday session since the legislature convened. The senate quit at noon until Monday.

Senate committees reported favorably and quickly bills exempting army post exchanges from payment of the state cigarette tax and authorizing housing agencies to cooperate with the federal government in constructing low cost home facilities in connection with defense projects.

The house killed a bill by Representative Sharpe which would have permitted the hiring of psychologists to work with public school children of lower than average mentality.

Truck Load Limit Fight.
AUSTIN, Feb. 6.—(P)—Smoldering since the last general session two years ago, the bitter truck load limit fight popped back into legislative prominence today.

The senate highways and motor transportation committee, before a crowd that spread over the big senate chamber, heard testimony last night on a bill repealing the present 7,000-pound net load limit and substituting a gross weight regulation which would allow loads up to 36,000 pounds, or a gross weight of 56,000 pounds.

A continuation of the hearing was set for Feb. 12.

LOCAL CHAPTER IS ORGANIZED TO FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS

DEEN ALLEN NAMED CHAIRMAN; OTHER OFFICERS ARE ALSO ELECTED

Organization of a Navarro County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc., was made at a special meeting Wednesday night of a group of Navarro County citizens at the YMCA at which time Deen Allen of Corsicana was elected chairman. Other officers elected included W. M. Davidson, Corsicana, and Mrs. W. L. Hendon, Richmond, vice chairman; Clyde Bickelstaff, Corsicana, secretary; and Mrs. A. E. Haslam, Corsicana, treasurer. Members of the chapter include citizens in practically every sizeable community in the county. Chairman Allen pointed out that formal affiliation with the national organization would operate to retain half of the money raised recently in the march of dimes program in Navarro County for work among infantile paralysis victims here. He said the local chapter could also be very influential in securing national aid if it ever became necessary. Chamber of Commerce sponsored the Infantile Paralysis campaign this year with a "March of Dimes" program. In a report on the results of the drive it was shown that $157.56 had been raised. Of this amount the Corsicana public schools contributed $48.58 and citizens of Frost responded with donations amounting to $23.79. Remainder of the money, $85.19, was obtained through donations by various civic organizations and individual contributions.

Chairman Allen expressed the appreciation of the local chapter and the national foundation to the proprietors of business firms in Corsicana and other parts of the county who aided in the campaign by placing coin collections in their stores. Members named on the Navarro County chapter in addition to the officers include Mrs. W. T. Shell, Jr., E. F. Waters, J. W. David, Clyde Stroud, Homer Jester, O. C. Bowmer, Will Miller, W. K. Logsdon, Mrs. A. G. Elliott, Tom Eady, Clyde Halbert, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Julius Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hendon, Richmond; J. C. Clayton, Kereas; Mrs. W. B. Watson, Barry; E. D. McCormick, Frost; Mrs. Seth Story, Angus; R. Bruce McCormick, Blinn; Charles Weaver, Dawson; J. A. Bonner, Eureka; E. P. Estes, Roane; Bob Witherspoon, Chatfield; W. B. ## SIMPLE ANSWER

Viscount Halifax has declared that Britain's first "war aim" is to win the war.—Sounds like a simple enough answer to those home-grown appeasers who favor withholding aid to beleaguered democracy until the very obvious issues of this struggle at last sink into their own dull heads!

It's very obvious that as much care should be exercised in compounding a medicine as your physician, himself, exercises in prescribing it...and that's why it's good advice to go to a prescription pharmacy where each preparation is double-checked for accuracy!—Prompt service.

FROM THE MAIL BAG.

L. M. O.—Because trade names cannot appear in the column, I am unable to give you the name of the preparation you ask about for removing gray hair from the legs. I am sorry. There are several different types of creams and lotions and then there is electrolysis wax; I prefer the latter as it is more lasting and has no unpleasant odor. Inquire at your department or drugstore, and you will be told about the various preparations available. Be sure and follow the directions as indicated on the jar.

Your age of 18 is very young to be getting gray hair? Is it a family trait? You mention having a lot of dandruff; and indeed this could be a contributing cause for the early graying. Dandruff cuts off the normal circulation and naturally when the hair root is not being fed it cannot be normal in color and texture. By all means clear up this condition. Give your scalp a thorough massage with hot oil, leave it on overnight and shampoo thoroughly the next morning. Full directions are contained in my booklet "How to have beautiful hair." If you will send a three cent stamped, self-addressed envelope for this, I shall be glad to forward it. There are rinses that can be used to soften the color of these white hairs that show so plainly against your natural dark color; but it is far better to stop the trouble and perhaps these "dead" white hairs will gradually disappear as the hair roots become active and normal again. C. C. writes: Please tell me how to improve hands that are red, wrinkled and look old. I have seen hands on old women that look nicer than mine, and I am only 30. I will appreciate any advice you give me, as I have improved my looks from other advice you have had in the column.

Red, wrinkled hands are due to poor circulation and lack of care. Do you exercise the hands? Such things as pinching the finger and bending it backward—one finger after another is excellent. Making a fist and then flinging the fingers wide apart, is also another good exercise, as well as shaking the hands vigorously from the wrists.

After washing the hands, you must always use a nice hand lotion. There are several grand ones available—even in the five and ten cent store. Put just a few drops on the back of your left hand. Then press the back of the right hand against it; and massage the hands, working the lotion into the skin until it has disappeared. And be sure that you wear gloves when doing heavy housework, washing with strong solutions, and cleaning, and hanging out the clothes. And don't forget to put on your gloves before going out of the house for any purpose whatever. I think if you observe these points your hands will improve and the wrinkled skin—which is only very dry skin—will disappear.

FARMERS RECEIVING CCC CAMP SERVICE ARE BUILDING WELL

STRIP CROPS, CONTOUR CULTIVATION, TERRACES AND CROP ROTATION FEATURES

(Editors Note: This is a second of a series of four stories concerning the CCC camp at Corsicana, the work area of the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) camp as furnished by the county officials.)

In protecting their cultivated land, farmers receiving assistance from the soil conservation service CCC camp at Corsicana, are establishing measures which will provide all-weather, year-round insurance against soil erosion according to T. K. Morris, senior district technician.

Among the practices being put on the land are contour, or level, cultivation, strip crops, terraces, and rotations which include cover and green manure crops to hold and improve land during the rains of winter and early spring and insure continued crop yields.

In discussing the treatment of cultivated land in the camp work area, Mr. Morris explained that soil erosion could be controlled only by the appropriate combination of various practical conservation measures. Each practice, he explained, makes its own contribution to soil erosion control and moisture conservation, and in addition supplements the other measures.

Retard Run-Off Rainfall.
"Contour rows in conjunction with other practices retard the run-off rainfall and hold more of the water on the land," Morris explained. "Water which flows from the cultivated portion of the fields runs through the strip crops, where soil particles are filtered out and held in the field. The surplus water then drains from the land in an orderly manner in the terrace channels."

He emphasized that it was important to have a safe place on which to dump terrace water. When terraces empty on unprotected land, gullying occurs. To avoid this danger, farmers have been sodding the individual terrace outlets to Bermuda grass. Wherever possible, the terraces are emptied on protected woodlands or improved pastures and meadows. Many farmers have established small pastures or meadows in natural drainage on which to dispose of terrace water. Others have dug and sodded outlet channels.

Accomplishments Cited.
Mr. Morris, in discussing how rapidly conservation farmers are protecting their land cited these accomplishment figures from the annual report:

Practice	Accomplished to date
Contour tillage (acres).....	6,249
Strip Cropping (acres).....	10,125
Cover crops (acres).....	14,591
Crop rotation (acres).....	4,162
Terrace outlet channels (rods).....	24,224
	9,761

He pointed out that the protection of 62,499 acres by terraces represents the construction of approximately 625 miles of terraces. According to the report, the total amount of work planned on these 252 farms for the protection of cultivated land is as follows:

Terracing, 13,050 acres; contour tillage, 25,622 acres; strip cropping, 18,881 acres; cover crops, 4,852 acres; crop rotation, 29,517 acres;

Ralph Stell, Jr., Gets Appointment US Naval Academy

Ralph Stell, Jr., freshman in Texas A. and M. College, this week received notification of his appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He is scheduled to report to the Academy, July 1, for his final physical examination. Stell passed the preliminary examination several months ago.

Young Stell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stell of Corsicana, was an honor graduate of Corsicana High School in 1940 and matriculated in Texas A. and M. College last fall. His appointment was made by Congressman Luther A. Johnson of Corsicana. Stell was manager of the Corsicana Tiger football club and was a member of the basketball team while a student in high school, and took an active part in school activities.

The former Tiger basketball team was slated for appointment in 1942, it was stated, but since the Academy is being enlarged and the graduates are being allowed to finish earlier, the earlier appointment was possible.

And terrace outlet channels, 14,629 rods.

(The third of this series of stories will discuss the conservation practices being established on pastures.)

JOHNSON COMMENDED FOR ACTIVITIES ON LEASE-LEND BILL

That Corsicana's representative in congress, the Hon. Luther A. Johnson, stands high in the nation's law-making body, is again indicated by a recent article by Drew Ferguson and Robert S. Allen, collaborating newspaper columnists writing under the caption Washington Daily Merry-Go-Round in their January 29 column, published in numerous newspapers over the nation, in commenting on the hearings by the House foreign affairs committee, of which Mr. Johnson is the ranking Democratic member, the following paragraph appeared:

"The administration can thank three Southerners for getting the bill through the public hearings and Foreign Affairs committee with a minimum of mauling. They are Representative Luther Johnson, level-headed, veteran Texan; James P. Richards of South Carolina and Wirt Courtney of Tennessee. They carried the ball when the going got tough and, without any grandstanding, did a very smooth job."

In The Nation, styled as America's Leading Weekly since 1865, published in New York, of January 25, an article from Washington by I. F. Stone, captioned, "A Time For Candor," the following also appeared:

"Sol Bloom perches his black ribboned pith helmet on his nose at the angle of George Arliss playing Disraeli, but there the resemblance ends. Johnson of Texas, ranking majority member, seems to be the brains of the Democratic side."

YOUR INCOME TAX IN A NUTSHELL

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN?
Every single person having a gross income of $800 or more; every married person, not living with husband or wife, and having a gross income of $800 or more; and married persons living with husband or wife, who have an aggregate gross income of $2,000 or more.

WHERE MUST RETURNS BE FILED?
For the calendar year, on or before March 15, 1941. For the fiscal year, on or before the third month following the close of the fiscal year.

WHERE AND WITH WHOM MUST INCOME TAX RETURNS BE FILED?
In the district in which the person lives or has his chief place of business, and with the collector of internal revenue.

HOW DOES ONE MAKE OUT HIS INCOME TAX RETURN?
By following the detailed instructions given on Forms 1040-A and 1040, the income tax blanks.

WHAT IS THE TAX RATE?
A normal tax of 4 percent on the amount of the net income, arrived at by deducting legal exemptions and credits from the gross income; a surtax on the surplus net income in excess of $4,000; and a defense tax of 10 percent of the combined normal tax and surtax.

INCOME TAX DON'T'S

DON'T prepare your income tax return until you carefully read and understand the instructions accompanying the forms. Make out a worksheet and check it with the instructions before filling in the forms.

DON'T delay in making out your income tax return. Tax problems, such as the loss of a job, or the early assumption of your tax liability, don't wait.

DON'T destroy the data which your return is compiled. You will need them for possible rechecking and verifying the return.

DON'T overlook any item or schedule on the form which you are required to fill out. They are all necessary to the exact computation of your income tax.

DON'T omit any explanation or information which is essential to a complete understanding of your return. An ounce of care may save you a pound of annoyance both to you and to your government.

Your Federal Income Tax EXEMPTIONS ALLOWED COUPLES MARRIED DURING TAXABLE YEAR.

The credit for dependents as well as the personal exemption is required to be prorated where a change of status occurs during the taxable year, and those credits are allowable not only for the purpose of computing the normal tax but also the surtax. A fractional part of a month is to be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it is considered a month.

For example, a single man and a single woman who were married on July 20, 1940, and lived together during the remainder of the year would be entitled to a personal exemption of $1,766.67 in a joint return for the calendar year 1940, which amount is seven-twelfths of $800 for the husband while single, plus seven-twelfths of $800 for the wife while single, plus five-twelfths of $2,000 for the period during which they were married. If separate returns are filed, each is entitled to a personal exemption of $833.33, which is seven-twelfths of $800, plus one-half of five-twelfths of $2,000. If during the year 1940 the husband or the wife had the status of the head of a family prior to their marriage, he or she would be entitled to his or her pro rata share of the personal exemption of $2,000 allowed the head of a family for the period prior to their marriage instead of merely that allowed a single person.

However, for the period of their marriage any exemption to which either might be entitled as the head of a family would be merged into the joint personal exemption for that period. The joint personal exemption allowable in the case of a couple who were married and living together during the entire year may not exceed $2,000.

If a child under 18 years of age reaches the age of 18 during the taxable year, the credit of $400 is required to be prorated in the same manner as the personal exemption. For example, should the child's eighteenth birthday fall on June 30, the parent would be entitled to claim $200 credit for the dependent child—that is, one-half of $400. The same rule applies to other dependents where a change of status occurs during the taxable year.

WHO IS THE HEAD OF A FAMILY?

For income tax purposes there can be only one head of a family. In addition to being the chief financial support, the head of a family must be related by blood, marriage, or adoption to his dependents, and he must have legal or moral obligation to exercise family control over them and provide for their care. As such he is entitled to the same exemption allowed a married person—$2,000. There are some unusual cases for this classification. A single person, who supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood, by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for them is based upon a legal or moral obligation, is the head of a family, and as such is entitled to the exemption allowed a married person—$2,000. In addition he may claim a credit of $400 for each dependent.

Another example not so much out of the usual is this: a widower who supports in his household his aged mother and his child 17 years of age is the head of a family, and as such is entitled to an exemption of $2,000 and a credit of $800 for two dependents.

Not infrequently a case like this is reported: It involves the support of an indigent adult by a single person who is morally and legally obligated to provide a home for this individual. In such a case the exemption as the head of a family may be allowed—the circumstances of each case are considered in making the determination. If the individual so supported is not financially dependent, even though the taxpayer maintains a common home and furnishes the chief support, the latter may not claim the exemption.

A taxpayer who supports in his home his minor children over whom he exercises family control is classified as the head of a family, even though the children may have an income of their own sufficient for the maintenance. If he does not support them, by reason of their own income, but does exercise family control, he cannot be classified as the head of a family.

MACKENZIE

(Continued From Page One.) necessarily dependent on numerical superiority. It's the striking power that counts, and such elements as speed and fire-power may equalize the difference in numbers.

On this basis the British while acknowledging Germany's numerical superiority, believe they are close to equalizing the Nazi fleet in striking power, and are piling up strength fast. The reason for this seemingly anomalous situation is really very simple, as I have mentioned in a previous column.

The British air fleet is largely up to date with the latest improvements, because Britain started from scratch to build. Also, she is employing a large number of plants rather than mass production, and so is able to make quick

Germany, on the other hand, employs mass production to a great extent and many of her planes were made before the war and are now outmoded. Even the new planes in some instances aren't up to date, because it isn't possible to change over quickly and substitute new models with mass production.
